REMINDER: Support the Rocky Mountain Greenway on July 15th

I promised a July 1 reminder about the upcoming Westminster City Council 'study session' on their continued participation in the Rocky Mountain Greenway.

Details: July 15th, 6 PM. See <https://rockyflatsneighbors.org/events/> (<https://rockyflatsneighbors.org/events/>) for clickable info about location and maps.

Why should you care? Anti-nuclear groups (and some credulous City Council members) are pressuring Westminster to drop its commitments to finishing the Rocky Mountain Greenway (particularly, the overpass/bridge over Indiana Street, without which hikers and cyclists will have to cross Indiana on foot). FYI: These groups ALSO oppose public use of the Refuge, with the ultimate goal of shutting it down.

More about the Greenway is at <https://www.jeffco.us/3639/Rocky-Mountain-Greenway> (<https://www.jeffco.us/3639/Rocky-Mountain-Greenway>).

If you believe in the Greenway, PLEASE fill out the brief survey at <https://forms.gle/v3QVw8jzEg73Afnf8> (<https://forms.gle/v3QVw8jzEg73Afnf8>). (Your privacy—except for zip code—is protected.). As many know, anti-nuclear groups have falsely claimed to represent people who live around the Rocky Flats National Wildlife Refuge.

I have requested three times since early June to present the 'science' side of Rocky Flats safety at this meeting with no reply. If you're NOT worried, you should be: see the transcripts at <https://rockyflatsneighbors.org/flyer-and-bibliography/> (<https://rockyflatsneighbors.org/flyer-and-bibliography/>). Part of fighting misinformation is providing good data, but part is also calling out disinformation. I'd be especially grateful to hear (wooddmarv@gmail.com) (<mailto:wooddmarv@gmail.com>) from anybody willing to read a statement tuned to some of the topics I know anti-nuclear folks will bring up. (Refuting goofy allegations with data is easy, but it takes more time than I will have.) I'll provide talking points and references to the scientific literature on the topics I think anti-Greenway activists will probably bring up.

For interested neighbors, as part of my ongoing experiment on whether social media can help in fighting Rocky Flats misinformation, there is a new Facebook group associated with rockyflatsneighbors.org \(http://rockyflatsneighbors.org\), at <https://www.facebook.com/groups/rockyflatsneighbors> (<https://www.facebook.com/groups/rockyflatsneighbors>). It also has pointers to the meeting under Events.

Thanks!

I'll be there. Important discussion for all to know about and weigh in on. The City Council website has the start time at 6:30 pm.

Stay tuned--the topic is so "hot" because of anti-nuclear opposition that a second study session is planned. It may NOT be worth your while to go the the July 15th, which will have pro- and con-sides, but no public input (!). This will come on
